

SUPPORTIVE HOUSING PROGRAM

NEW APARTMENTS IN HARLEM (126 W. 126TH ST)

OPENING SUMMER 2023

Our Supportive Housing Program provides housing and social support to young adults aging out of foster care or in the shelter system. For years, we have operated housing units under New York City's NY/NY III and NYC 15 designations. With support from the Empire State Supportive Housing Initiative (ESSHI), we're expanding our reach - and applications are now open for brand-new studio, 1-bedroom, and 2-bedroom units in Central Harlem!

PROGRAM DETAILS

- Housing available in Two-Bedroom (20) 1-Bedroom (20), and Studio (10) Apartments for eligible young adults
- Building amenities include:
 - Fitness Center
 - Laundry Room
 - Resident Lounge
 - Outdoor Terrace
 - Bike Storage
 - On-site Foundling office
 - Easy access to 125th St business district & transit (A/B/C/D/2/3/4/5/6 trains, various buses & Metro-North connections)
- Support services available:
 - Coaching/Mentoring
 - Referrals to evidence based treatment & other community-based organizations & more

WHO CAN APPLY?

Young adults (ages 18-26) with a history in foster care and/or chronic homelessness, including those who have a documented risk or experience of one of the following adverse circumstances:

- Substance Use Disorder
- Serious Mental Illness
- Complex Trauma
- HIV/AIDS
- Domestic Violence
- Homelessness or Unmet Housing Needs
- Incarceration of Juvenile Justice Placement

PROGRAM ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

- Income below $29,650 for single units (studio and one-bedrooms)
- Income below $33,900 combined for two-bedrooms
- OR
- Full-time college students with history of foster care involvement (no employment)
- Housing Vouchers are welcomed but will not impact criteria requirements

LIMITED AVAILABILITY - APPLY NOW!

HAVE QUESTIONS? CONTACT:

ESSHI@nyfoundling.org

tinyurl.com/ESSHINYF