

Back to School Supply Drive

Help NYC students achieve academic success!

The New York Foundling provides holistic, evidence-based services focused on expanding opportunity and building futures for communities. This includes youth in foster care, their families, and those at risk of entering the child welfare system. Ensuring that every student, no matter their zip code, is prepared to start the school year is a fundamental way you can support students in accomplishing their goals.

Interested in Making a Difference?

- In-Kind Donations: Donate school supplies, such as backpacks, notebooks, pens, and calculators, to help us meet the diverse needs of students from various backgrounds. Your contributions will ensure that every child has the tools they need to excel in the classroom and beyond.
 - In-Person Drive (deadline: August 14th)
 - Personalized flyers and materials
 - Collect supplies and drop them off at The Foundling headquarters
 - Join our Online Drive (deadline: July 31st)
 - Personalized supply drive page
 - Opportunity to create "teams" within your drive
 - Amazon Wishlist
- Employee Engagement Opportunities: Encourage your employees to get involved and make a direct impact. Volunteer at our headquarters, stuffing backpacks! These hands-on opportunities not only benefit students but also foster teamwork and camaraderie among your staff.
- Become a vital partner in our mission by sponsoring our drive - Your company's financial support enables us to fill critical supply gaps and ensure every student receives what they need, no shopping or drop-offs required. In return, we offer recognition across our marketing materials, social media platforms, and event signage, while boosting your brand visibility and demonstrating your commitment to educational equity.
